SPONSORS NEEDED FOR OPERATION FREEDOM 2008

MILWAUKEE – County Executive Scott Walker is hosting Operation Freedom 2008 at the Milwaukee County Zoo on Sunday, July 6, 2008 to thank our United States Armed Forces for a job well done at home and abroad. More than 15,000 attended last year’s event.

The exciting day at the Milwaukee County Zoo includes a free picnic, military vehicle display, a patriotic program, and entry to all zoo exhibits - including the Stingray and Shark Reef Exhibit, Oceans of Fun sea lion show, and train rides throughout the grounds.

“The service men and women and their families in our area have come to look forward to this highlight of the summer,” said Walker. “Our local sponsors make it possible for them to enjoy this day at the zoo as a show of our community’s appreciation.”

In 2007, Milwaukee County had approximately 80 sponsors, including Miller Brewery, Pepsi, Harley-Davidson Motor Company, Wauwatosa Savings, Palermo’s Pizza, and many other companies who stepped forward to help thank our Armed Forces, veterans, and their families.
