County Executive Abele Welcomes New County Board

MILWAUKEE – Milwaukee County Executive Chris Abele welcomes the new Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors. The new board will be sworn in Monday, April 16, 2012.

“I look forward to working with the board in the coming years on fixing the counties financial problems while providing important, sustainable services,” Abele said.

13 incumbents and five new supervisors won four-year terms in the April 3 election.
