

Correction, Posted July 25, 2012

If, prior to the date fixed for the submission of bids/proposals, a Proposer fails to notify Purchaser of an error about which it knew or should have known, and if a Contract is awarded to the Proposer, the Proposer shall not be entitled to additional compensation or time by reason of the error or its later correction.

The Proposer is responsible for any proposal inaccuracies, including errors in the Proposer's Price/Cost Proposal and any best and final offer (if applicable). The County reserves the right to reject proposals that contain errors or, at its sole discretion, waive disqualifying errors or gain clarification from a Proposer, in the event that it is in the best interest of the County to do so.

The provisions of the bid/proposal of the successful Proposer will become contractual obligations. Failure or refusal of the successful Proposer to accept these obligations in a contractual agreement may result in cancellation of the award.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

The County will provide reasonable accommodations, including the provision of informational material in alternative format, for qualified individuals with disabilities upon request. If the Proposer needs accommodations, please contact the RFP Manager.
