

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Milwaukee County

March, 2012

To: Community Agencies and Organizations

The Milwaukee County Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) invites community agencies and organizations to participate in a training opportunity offered by the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office, Emergency Management Bureau, which is offering a free course in Planning for the Evacuation and Shelter-in-Place Needs of People with Medical Dependencies during a Disaster.

The course is sponsored by the FEMA Competitive Training Grant Program, and offered on:

April 30, 2013 • 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM • Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office, Franklin, WI

There is no limit to the number of individual from within a particular agency that may register; however, the Emergency Preparedness Office encourages everyone to register as soon as possible as it is first-come-first-served. The session is limited to 50 participants. In developing Emergency Preparedness Plans, we feel the information will be beneficial to nonresidential and residential providers alike.
