

CARE ASPECTS OF SELECTED SAIL CANDIDATES (NONEXHAUSTIVE SUMMARY)

COMMENTS

Interpretive services, two to three times weekly,
Weekly professional risk assessments in multiple spheres, including pain, sleep, mood, aggressive ideation, complaints, unsettled grievances;
Advocate available to address complaints, as reasonable;
Staff capable and present to respond to aggression;
Observation for any items that may be used as weapons;
Elopement management;
Medication management;
Individual room;
Rapid access to secure stabilization facility;
Occupational therapy;
Sheltered work therapy;
Music therapy;
Access to musical instruments;
Management of any forensic issues;
Controlled and supported access to the community of his ethnic heritage;
Chapter 51 services;
24 hour staff;

Fluid intake management;
Elopement management;
Individually guided activities, including walks and physical activity;
Occupational therapy, including assessments;
Access to music, and to a setting where it can be played at loud volume;
Individual room;
Access to socialization activities, with available individual supervision to address intrusive behavior;
Location near mother, if possible;
24 hour staff;

Occupational Therapy;
Access to outdoors and to walks;
Panhandling management;
Wandering Management;
Peers available for socialization;

Professional risk assessment to address avowed suicidal ideation and intent;
Assessment and management of homicidal ideation and statements;
Followup by Hematology Clinic (Sickle Cell Disease);
Pain management;
Management of access to pain medication;
Elopement management;
Management of access to hospital emergency rooms in pursuit of pain medication;
Staff present and capable of addressing physical aggression and property destruction;
Therapeutic management and improvement of relationship with family;
Access to spiritual leader, and to an expression of religious practice;

Management of access to stimulants and other over the counter medications;
Regular professional assessment and risk management;
Regular professional contact and support to discuss and resolve grievances;
Professional intervention, including symptom management and supportive care;
Occupational Therapy;
Availability of crisis intervention;

COMMENTS

Access to Infectious Diseases Clinic and Wisconsin Aids Resource Center;
Continuation of court order for psychotropic medications;
Vigilant monitoring of ingestion and absorption of oral medications;
Procedure for safe administration of intramuscular medications, both scheduled and replacement;
Rapid access to acute psychiatric care;
Weekly professional risk assessments in multiple spheres, including pain, sleep, mood, aggressive ideation, complaints, unsettled grievances;
Advocate available to address complaints, as reasonable;
Staff capable and present to respond to aggression;
Daily access to outdoors;
Regular (weekly) staff guided outings, generally with two staff members;
Elopement management;
Medication management;
Contact with family;
Access to religious services and to spiritual leader;
Occupational therapy, including pre or paravocational activity;
Individual room;
Snacks and occasional meals from community sources;
Chapter 51 and forensic services;
24 hour staff;

Medication management;
Pain management;
Physical therapy;
Weekly professional risk assessments in multiple spheres, including pain, sleep, mood, suicidal and aggressive ideation, complaints, unsettled grievances;
Staff capable and present to respond to aggression;
Weekly professional psychotherapeutic contact;
One to one observation on a recurring basis to prevent self harm and property damage;
Access and escorted transportation to religious and individual pastoral services;
Access to radio and televised religious programming, regardless of peers' preferences;
Access to family visits;
Ample writing materials
Individual room;
Chapter 51 services;
24 hour staff;

Elopement management;
Occupational therapy;
Regular community outings with individual escort;
Chapter 51 services;

Support and management of cyclical, and significant, variation in mood states;
Involvement in addiction recovery services;
Staff prepared to interact regularly to assess and address complaints, concerns, and conflicts;
Occupational therapy;
Flexible program of paravocational activities;

COMMENTS

Encouragement and monitoring of grooming and personal hygiene; Access to personally purchased grooming supplies; Community accepting of need for extensive conversation and socialization; Staff monitoring and assistance in care of personal area and housekeeping; Access to educational materials and experiences; Access to shopping experiences and to preferred clothing; Sufficient space for personal library; Single room; Assistance in money management and budgeting; Actively involved payee;
Supportive, sheltering residence; Psychotherapeutic services to address issues of anxiety and panic; Extensive access to outdoors and walks; Access to peers in a supportive, unstructured context; Occupational therapy;
Occupational therapy; Diabetes education and management, Elopement management; Access to Infectious Diseases Clinic and Wisconsin Aids Resource Center; Regular escorted community outings, Individual room;
Regular professional assessment regarding management of sexuality; Regular professional psychotherapeutic contact; Elopement management; Restricted or highly supervised contact with children; Therapeutic management of sexual adjustment toward staff; Single room, with freedom to individualize, as appropriate; Regular exercise, including walks outdoors; Frequent supervised community outings; Individual room; Staff capable and present to respond to aggression (primarily toward property); 24 hour staff;
Significant structure and support to manage agitation; Significant observation and redirection of sexual behavior; Environment that is active and involving, but without extraneous stimulation; Sufficient staff trained and present to manage aggression; Occupational therapy; Social skills training; Management of diabetes care;
Weekly professional psychotherapeutic services; Medication management; Recurrent limitation and management of telephone access; Therapeutic activity and support during the evening and nighttime hours; Management of belongings, furniture, and other equipment to prevent property damage and self-injury. Staff capable and present to respond to aggression (primarily toward property); Exploration of possible repair of relationships with family; Individual room; Chapter 51 services; 24 hour staff;

COMMENTS

Individual observation during toileting, to prevent rectal digging and insertions; Controlled access to bathroom; Medical and nursing review to assess for ingestion and insertions; Frequent access to walks and exercise; Staff capable and present to respond to aggression; Individual room; Elopement management; 24 hour staff;
Individual observation during toileting, to prevent rectal digging and insertions; Controlled access to bathroom; Individual room; Medical and nursing review to assess for ingestion and insertions; Occupational therapy; 24 hour staff;
Occupational therapy; Access to religious services and pastoral services; Extensive staff support to prevent aggression; Location that facilitates family visits; Individual room:
Weekly professional assessment of cognition and mood to assess for potential for aggression; Occupational therapy; Staff capable and present to respond to aggression; Individual room; Chapter 51 services;
Elopement management; Weekly professional risk management assessment to assess potential for sexual and physical aggression; Treatment to promote prosocial attitudes; Staff capable and present to respond to aggression; Individual room; Occupational therapy; Forensic and Chapter 51 services; 24 hour staff;
Occupational therapy; Regular professional risk assessment, particularly related to aggression; Therapeutic approach to paranoia and negative symptoms;
Physical therapy; Occupationals activity; Diabetes management; Assessment and interventions for self-injurious and suicidal behavior' including ingestion of objects; Management of bartering to reduce interpersonal conflicts; Visits with family; Chapter 51 services; Management of Power of Attorney status.