

FIRST ANNUAL

ARTISTS

IN THE GARDEN

A WEEKEND OF ART, NATURE, MUSIC AND GOOD FOOD

SATURDAY, SEPT. 12TH & SUNDAY, SEPT. 13TH, 2015
BOERNER BOTANICAL GARDENS
9400 BOERNER DRIVE, HALES CORNERS
10AM - 5PM

Hosted by:

FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

- Over 40 artists, 28 painting on site throughout the gardens!
- Original, affordable art for sale from award winning local artists.
- Professional artists will be demonstrating art techniques in a variety of media including sculpture, encaustic, watercolor and more.
- Special guest, TV/radio host and horticulturist Melinda Myers will be judging the Richeson School of Art and Gallery plein air competition on Sunday
- Friends of Boerner Botanical Gardens Gift Shop open all weekend. Lots of unique items including the work of local artists and crafters!
- Have lunch at the Zilli Café on Saturday, featuring a full coffee/espresso bar with café fare, or a full Brunch on Sunday.
- Beautiful music to enhance your visit will be played on acoustic guitar, hammered dulcimer, and Native American flute.
- Over 350 different kinds of roses will be blooming in the rose garden!
- Children's Center:
 - Art/Horticulture projects with the Friends of Boerner Botanical Gardens - Saturday only.
 - Kohl's Color Wheels interactive art making experience inspired by the Milwaukee Art Museum's feature exhibition, Modern Rebels: Van Gogh to Pollock - Sunday only.
- Refresh yourself at Milwaukee County's popular Traveling Beer Garden featuring Sprecher Brewing Company products
- Admission to the Gardens: Adults $5.50, Seniors & Students $4.50, Children 6+ $3.50 and free parking.

• For up-to-date information, visit www.artistsinthegarden.org