

Play Innovations: Planning, Promoting and Protecting Play Environments for the Whole Community

You are invited to an exclusive learning experience featuring expert lecturers and leaders in play and nature

Certificate of Completion provided to all attendees

Seating is limited!
Call to register and reserve your seat for Play Innovations: Planning Promoting and Protecting Play Environments by contacting :

Carolyn Kozloski at Minnesota Wisconsin Playground, call 800-622-5425 or email carolyn@mnwiplay.com.

May 19, 2011
King Center Auditorium
1531 W Vliet Street
Milwaukee WI 53226

Provided By:

Presented by:

Sponsored By:

This Symposium brings together recognized experts in designing inclusive, compelling play environments that inspire children to connect with nature while being physically active. Participants will leave with best practice principles in planning, design, sustainability, and maintenance.

"The most effective education is that a child should play amongst lovely things."
- PLATO

Who should attend?

- Park and Recreational Professionals
- Education and School Administration
- Environmental Educators
- Landscape Architects & Design Professionals
- Those Interested in Promoting Play and Environmental Education

Keynote speaker

Robin Moore, Dipl Arch., MCP
Director Natural Learning Initiative
North Carolina State University

Robin Moore is a recognized expert in the design of play, learning, and educational environments. Pursuing his interest in integrating environmental design and child development for over 30 years, Moore has authored and published numerous works about children in nature, and has held faculty appointments at UC Berkeley, Stanford University, and North Carolina State University

Featured Speakers

- Lisa Moore-VP Strategic Services
PlayCore
- David Farson-Regional Specialist
GameTime

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

8:30-10:30 Keynote event Pathways for Play Internationally acclaimed expert Robin Moore addresses the planning, design, and implementation of innovative trails that engage children and families. Learn how to create new interest in outdoor environments!

10:30 - 10:45 Break

10:45 - 12:15 Let's Play! Promoting Inclusive play for All!

Lisa Moore leads participants on a journey through the principles of inclusive play design-for play environments where all children play side by side, no matter their age or ability. Explore how to foster friendship, break down barriers, and support character education initiatives.

12:15 - 1:00 Lunch break

1:00 - 3:00 Playground Maintenance

David Farson hosts an interactive session on protecting your playground investment through proper maintenance and regular inspections. To be held at the playground on location for a hands-on experience.

"Passion does not arrive on videotape, it rises from the earth itself by the muddy hands of the young, it travels along grass stained sleeves to the heart."

- RICHARD LOUV