Train Show, 'Story Book Tales' Opens at the Domes

Children 5 and Under are Free

MILWAUKEE, WI – (January 11, 2011) - The Mitchell Park Domes, 524 S. Layton Blvd. is preparing to open this winter's indoor Train Show, "Story Book Tales." The show opens Saturday, Jan. 15 at 9 a.m. and runs everyday through April 3rd. It will include several G-scale trains running simultaneously on over 500 feet of track through story scenes of Cinderella, Princess and the Pea, Winnie the Pooh, Jack and the Bean Stalk and the Little Mermaid.

The train show is extremely popular to visitors of all ages. The coming show is masterfully landscaped and designed with state-of-the-art digital technology. Bring the family and see collectible one-of-a-kind trains as they wind their way through azaleas and hundreds of miniature plants.

The Domes are open Monday through Friday, 9 to 5 p.m. and weekends 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Adult admission is $6.50, children ages 6-17 are $5 and children 5 and under are free.

During the train show, the Domes will be open from 9am until 9pm each Thursday through March 31st, to host the series of live "Music Under Glass" concerts from 6:30pm – 8:30pm.

The Wisconsin Garden Railway Society, the Glacier Train club and members from Racine and Illinois provide volunteer support along with local hobbyists to answer any and all train questions. For more information go to countyparks.com or contact the Domes at (414) 649-9830.
