Estabrook Biergarten Season Ends This Weekend with ½ Price Beer Auf Wiedersehen until 2013

Milwaukee, WI (November 8, 2012) The Milwaukee County Parks in partnership with Hans Weissgerber III, announces the season ending for the Estabrook Beer Garden this weekend November 9th-11th, noon until sundown. The Garden is located between Hampton Ave. and Capital Dr. on 4610 Estabrook Drive overlooking the Milwaukee River.

The Beer garden feature beers imported from the Munich Hofbräuhaus. This weekend Beers will be $3 for a half liter and $5.50 for a Full Liter. Bratwurst, Hotdogs, and Giant Fresh Baked Pretzels will be available for purchase, and as always picnic baskets are welcome.

Beer Gardens in Milwaukee have been a long standing tradition that brought both families and neighbors together in a social setting used to unite communities together. From the early arrival of German immigrants in Milwaukee, beer gardens began to spring up along the banks of the Milwaukee River. By the late 1800's beer gardens were prolific throughout the city, they had become the center of summer social life and could be found in many city and county parks.
