Germany Under Glass at the Mitchell Park Domes

A Day of Fun For The Whole Family

MILWAUKEE - (February 2, 2012) –Need a vacation, but don't want to leave Milwaukee? Come to the Mitchell Park Domes on Saturday, March 3, 2012 and immerse yourself in German culture as you attend Germany Under Glass sponsored by the German American Societies, Inc. and Milwaukee County Parks. The festival will open at 9am at the Domes, 524 S. Layton Boulevard, and end at 4pm. Along with this very popular ethnic festival, at the same time take in the Fantasy Garden Train Show.

Bring your family and experience a mini-trip to Germany while using all five of your senses within the unique environment of the Mitchell Park Conservatory. Relax at the Konditorei [café] with a cup of coffee and help yourself to a serving or two of Bienenstich [custard filled torte]. Explore the beauty of the conservatories while being entertained by German musicians and dance groups. As you stroll through the Domes, stop and taste the flavors of Germany with entrées from Mader's Restaurant. Guests are invited to visit the Education Center and learn about the history of Milwaukee's Beer barons, genealogy resources, pretzel folding and more. There will be plenty of family-friendly activities with crafts, games and storytelling for children and demonstrations created by the local German clubs.

Regular admission rates apply. For more information call the Mitchell Park Domes at (414) 257-5600.
