Owl Prowl at Wehr Nature Center

Franklin, WI- (January 17, 2012) – The Wehr Nature Center, 9701 W. College Ave., in Franklin invites children, their families and friends to Owl Prowl on Friday, Jan. 27, 2012 from 7-9pm for adults only and on Friday, Feb. 3, 2012 from 7-9pm for families. Interested participants need to register by the Wednesday before each program.

Guests will look and listen for owls as a naturalist leads a walk through the woodlands in search of the Eastern Screech Owl and the Great Horned Owl. Habits and adaptations of owls will be discussed. A slide presentation on Wisconsin owls will follow the hike. Attendees should dress in warm layers and bring a flashlight.

This experience in nature is recommended for children ages 6 and up. Non-resident admission is $10 for adults, $7 for Milwaukee County residents, $5 for Friends of Wehr and $5 for children ages 12 & under. For more information go to countyparks.com or call the Wehr Nature Center at (414) 425-8550.
