Recycled Jewelry Making Workshop

Learn how to refashion recycled items into jewelry

The Recycled Jewelry Making Workshop at Wehr nature Center on April 21, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. is the ultimate in recycling. It adds another element to the recycle, reuse, reduce triangle - "refashion". When you have finished this workshop you may leave with a new cuff bracelet, dangle earrings, a bead necklace, and a pendant necklace that you have made. All jewelry findings and tools will be supplied. Please bring one empty and clean plastic soda bottle and one, empty cleaned aluminum can per person. Please bring safety glasses if you have them.

Pre-registration is required by April 13. Fee is $20/person, $18/ Milwaukee County Resident, $15/Friend of Wehr Member (12 and up) (children must be accompanied by an adult). Wehr Nature Center, 9701 W. College Avenue, Franklin. 414-425-8550, www.countyparks.com
