Turkey Under Glass at the Domes Mitchell Park Domes A Day of Fun for the Whole Family

Milwaukee, WI – (February 26, 2013) – “Turkey Under Glass,” a festival highlighting the cultures and customs of Turkey, comes to The Mitchell Park Domes, Saturday, March 9th, 9-4 p.m., during the final weekend of the garden train show, “The Circus Comes to Town.”

Visitors to the Domes, 524 S. Layton Blvd., will learn about southeastern Europe’s Turkish culture through exhibits, traditional storytelling, dance performances, music, and workshops. Featured dance groups are TurAm (Turkish-American) Folk Dance Group, Romanian Folk Dancers, Pat Kellar’s Mid East Belly Dance Troupe, and the Hamilton High School Horan Turkish Folk Dance Group. The Elegant Gypsies will perform their blend of gypsy, jazz, and modern Mediterranean music.

A Turkish bazaar—complete with coin necklaces, belly-dance coin-belts, pashmina scarves and more—will bring the bustle of the marketplace to the event. Authentic Turkish food, including Turkish coffee and lemonade will be available for purchase.

Admission to the event is included in regular admission prices: Age 18 & up $6.50; Age 6-17 $5; Children under 6 Free; Senior with proof of Milwaukee County residency, student with ID, and persons with disabilities $5. For more information go to countyparks.com or call the Domes at (414) 257-5600.
