“Autumn at Boerner”

Milwaukee, WI (Aug. 15, 2013) – The Friends of Boerner Botanical Gardens (FBBG) will present “Autumn at Boerner,” a day of autumn-themed activities, children’s crafts, and a craft fair, Sunday, Sept. 8. The fundraising event will be held from 10 a.m.–3 p.m. at Boerner Botanical Gardens, 9400 Boerner Drive.

Activities for children – of all ages – include take-home crafts and the edible craft of caramel-apple making.

Crafts for sale at the event will include yard art, jewelry and more.

Food concessions will also be available for purchase from the Hales Corners Lions Club.

Funds raised during the event will support children’s plant science and environmental education programs at Boerner Botanical Gardens.

Admission to “Autumn at Boerner” is $5 per child or $4 per child of FBBG members. Admission to the Botanical Gardens is $5 per person age 18 and over; $4 per person with a disability, student I.D., or Milwaukee County Senior age 60 or over with an I.D.; and $3 per child age 6-17.
