2014 Wisconsin PGA Junior Championship Largest Junior Golf Event in the State Comes to Milwaukee

Milwaukee, WI (June 17, 2014) Wisconsin's largest junior golf event, the Wisconsin PGA Junior Championship, is coming to Brown Deer and Dretzka Park, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24 and 25, with the first tee time at 7:30 a.m. and play continuing until about 5 p.m. Brown Deer Golf Course is located at 7625 N. Range Line Road; Dretzka, at 12020 W. Bradley Road.

All competitors are 13 to 18 years old. Of the expected 350 players from around the state, one champion from the boy's division and one champion from the girl's division will go on to compete at the national PGA Junior Championship in Bryan-College Station, TX in July. Only 41 boys and 41 girls will play in the national championship.

"We are pleased that the Wisconsin PGA Junior Foundation chose our top Milwaukee County Parks golf courses for this competition," said Chet Hendrickson, Golf Services Manager. "It's an honor for the community to own the courses that these players will see as their stepping stones."

The Junior PGA Championship has traditionally been the event that launched the careers of many of today's PGA and LPGA Tour professionals. Past Junior PGA Championship competitors who have gone on to successful professional careers include Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson, Jordan Spieth, and Michelle Wie.

Milwaukee County Parks offers 15 golf courses, from Par 3s to the PGA Tour-tested Brown Deer.
