August Nights Concert Series Returns to Jackson Park

Thursday Evenings From 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Milwaukee, WI (Aug. 1, 2014) – August Nights, a free concert series sponsored by North Shore Bank, returns to Jackson Park, Thursday evenings in August, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Jackson Park is located at 3500 W. Forest Home Ave. Concerts will be held in the shelter at Picnic Area 2.

August Nights presents a variety of musical genres. Dixie Doodlers kick off the series Aug. 7, with 1920s-style jazz; Liverpool 64 pays tribute to The Beatles, Aug. 14; Swing of Pearls brings back Big Band swing and cool jazz, Aug. 21; and Katie Beth closes the series on Aug. 28, telling stories of heartbreak, redemption, and hope through a blend of rock and country music.

The concert on Aug. 14 will be part of the larger event, “Family Fun Night.” North Shore Bank will provide free snacks and beverages, while supplies last, and Artists Working in Education (AWE) will offer free art activities from 6-8 p.m. The art activities are designed for children age 4-14.
