Gingerbread Land Holiday Show to Open at The Domes Nov. 21

Milwaukee, WI (Oct. 20, 2015) – Gingerbread Land, a holiday floral show filled with gingerbread houses, gingerbread folk, and a giant holiday tree decorated with gingerbread cookies and other sweets, will open Saturday, Nov. 21, at 9 a.m. The Domes, Milwaukee’s Living Landmark, is located at 524 S. Layton Blvd.

Featured plants in the show will be those that provide the ingredients for gingerbread. Cinnamon verum, Sugar Cane, Ginger Root, and Vanilla Orchids will be set against a backdrop of hundreds of dark red, white, and light pink Poinsettias, numerous white Chrysanthemums and Cyclamen, and lime green and maroon Coleus.

The focal point of the show will be the holiday tree. Multi-colored lights, gingerbread cookies that resemble the many gingerbread folk throughout the show, red and white striped peppermints and candy canes, and white garlands that could be mistaken for icing will make the tree fit perfectly in Gingerbread Land.

To complement the holiday show, Mr. and Mrs. Claus will make appearances. Saturday, Dec. 12, Santa will be in the Domes Annex from 11 a.m.-noon and in the Show Dome from noon-3 p.m. On Saturday, Dec. 19, from noon-3 p.m., both Mr. and Mrs. Claus will be in the Show Dome.

A variety of performances are being scheduled at The Domes throughout the holiday season. Entertainment will include singing, dancing, and skits by Kids Korp and musical performances by students of the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music as well as the 70 tuba players of TUBACHRISTMAS. The full schedule will be posted and updated on the website.

Last year over 41,000 people visited the holiday show, one of the most popular shows of the year.
