Watercolors on View at Boerner Botanical Gardens, July–August

Hales Corners, WI (June 20, 2016) — Watercolors by Sue Haislmaier will be on view in the Garden House of the Boerner Botanical Gardens from July 23-Aug. 14. The Botanical Gardens, Milwaukee County’s Living Museum, is located at 9400 Boerner Drive, in Whitnall Park.

A member of the League of Milwaukee Artists, Haislmaier has exhibited her work in numerous juried shows, including the prestigious Watercolor Wisconsin exhibit of the Wustum Museum in Racine. In addition to studying fine art at the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee, she has studied with renowned watercolorist Jean Crane.

As an avid gardener and teacher of environmental education for 30 years, Haislmaier is inspired by the outdoors throughout the four seasons.

In an artist’s statement, she wrote, “Whatever the weather or the time of day, I am alert to the way light plays on a subject. I delight in the surprise of discovery when exploring in the natural environment. Each watercolor work is a private meditation to be shared and enjoyed.”

Haislmaier’s work will be on display in the Garden House from 8 a.m.–6 p.m., seven days a week.

The Botanical Gardens are open daily until dusk.

Admission to the Botanical Gardens, which includes admission to the Garden House, is $5.50 for adults age 18 and up; $4.50 for students of any age with IDs, Milwaukee County seniors age 60 and up with IDs, and people with disabilities; and $3.50 for youths age 6-17. Free admission is offered to Milwaukee County residents with ID and proof of residency on “First Tuesdays,” the first Tuesday of the month through September. Admission to the gardens requires wearing the official daily wristband.

For more information, call the Botanical Gardens at (414) 525-5601.
