B. MILWAUKEE COUNTY V. MILWAUKEE COUNTY PERSONNEL REVIEW BOARD, CASE NO. 14-CV-002536, DECISION AND ORDER
The Board noted that the Decision and Order in Milwaukee County v. Milwaukee County Personnel Review Board, Case No. 14-CV-002536, found that the Board did not have jurisdiction to hear grievances related to disciplinary measures that are not addressed in Wisconsin Statute § 63.10. The Board expressed its intent to dismiss the pending grievances related to discipline not addressed in Wisconsin Statute § 63.10.

The Board heard arguments from Mark Sweet, Attorney, Sweet & Associates, representative of District Council 48 AFSCME and several employees with pending disciplinary grievances, and Paul Kuglitsch, Assistant Corporation Counsel. Mr. Sweet noted the employees and the union objected to the dismissal of these cases on legal, practical, and political grounds. Mr. Sweet noted that the court did not rule on the due process implications of the court’s decision; that the decision was limited; and Ms. Beck, whose grievance was at issue in the case, had not yet determined her next steps. Mr. Kuglitsch stated that the order was clear that the Board could not hear these grievances.

Ms. Lueger moved, Ms. Clark seconded, and the Board, by 3-0 vote, determined it did not have jurisdiction to hear grievances related to employee discipline other than instances of dismissal, demotion, suspensions longer than 10 days, or an employee’s second suspension in a six-month time period.

(3) An employee granted leave under this section shall return, upon expiration of the leave, to the previous position held.
An employee using paid time off of 30 working days or less for the purposes of vacation, sick time, bereavement leave, accrued compensatory, holiday or other paid time off shall not be considered to be on a personal leave of absence under this section, nor shall a retirement be considered a personal leave of absence.

Section 3. Layoff

Whenever a department head or appointing authority of a department determines that it is necessary to reduce the number of employees in any classification in the classified service, the department head or appointing authority of the department concerned shall notify the director of human resources of the number of employees to be laid off, including position titles. Unless otherwise provided in an applicable collective bargaining agreement, employees may be laid off based on:

The names of employees laid off in accordance with the rules of the Commission shall be placed on reinstatement lists in reverse order of layoff and shall be certified as eligible to any vacancy in the same classification or a classification of the same character and standard of work, as determined by the director of human resources. Reinstatement shall be made in accordance with the appointment requirements of Rule IV of these rules.

The names of employees laid off shall remain on the reinstatement list for one year from inclusion on the reinstatement list. The name of a laid off employee may be removed from the reinstatement list for any disqualification reason listed elsewhere in these rules.
Persons on any reinstatement list may at any time before reemployment be required to submit to a medical, physical, or performance test, including a written examination, if such written test is deemed necessary by the director of human resources, and/or participate in an interview process. If any such person is found deficient and below prerequisite standards for such employment, his/her name shall be removed from the reinstatement list for such classification.
