Drunk Driver Arrested with Four Children in Car OWI-3rd – 237th repeat offender in last 13 months

Milwaukee, WI – A Milwaukee County Sheriff's deputy on patrol stopped a vehicle travelling the wrong way in the distress lane on westbound I-94 near the Zoo Interchange last night shortly after 6:00 p.m. The driver, Shelly Greeson, age 33, had four children ages 4 to 8 in the car with her. She had been headed westbound, spun out of control, and ended up facing eastbound when the deputy arrived.

Greeson was uncooperative and confused. The deputy observed signs of intoxication and arrested Greeson for OWI-3rd with Children Under 16-years of Age. The results of the PBT were .18, more than twice the legal limit. Her previous OWI offenses occurred in February 2001 and September 2002.

Two of the children were picked up by their mother at the MCSO Patrol Substation. Waukesha County Child Protective Services placed Greeson's children with their relatives.

Greeson faces felony OWI-3rd with child under 16 charges, which carries a penalty of up to one year in jail, two to three years license revocation and a requirement to install an ignition interlock device. She also faces misdemeanor charges of Reckless Driving, with a penalty of up to one year confinement.
