Sheriff's Apprehension Unit Locates Missing BHD Patient

Milwaukee, WI – The Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office Apprehension Unit located Carl Krueger, the missing patient from the Milwaukee County Behavioral Health Division (BHD) facility, just after 6:30 p.m. He was found unharmed at Pulaski Park and returned to BHD.

Sheriff David A. Clarke ordered the deployment of the Sheriff's Office Apprehension Unit, distribution of missing person posters to Milwaukee County Transit and Mayfair Mall, assignment of deputies to check area shelters, MCSO K9 teams to search the county grounds, and courts deputies redeployed to assist in a grid search.

The sheriff wants further investigation into how a long-term commitment patient is able to walk out of the facility.

The sheriff's office thanks the media for their cooperation in notifying the public, and the citizens who called to report the possible whereabouts of the patient.
