Second Wrong-Way Drunk Driver Stopped by Deputies on Freeway in Less Than a Week

Milwaukee, WI – While on patrol, a Milwaukee County Sheriff's Deputy observed a wrong-way driver headed westbound in the eastbound lanes of I-94 at 60th Street this morning at 1:55 a.m. The wrong-way driver pulled into a construction area and stopped near that location only after a tow truck driver flashed his yellow lights. Several squads responded to the scene.

Adam Bruno, 30, of Hales Corners, was taken to the patrol substation where he blew a .18 on the intoximeter, more than twice the legal limit. Deputies also recovered a marijuana pipe on the floor of Bruno's vehicle. He was ticketed for OWI-1st and arrested for a Class C misdemeanor charge of Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and a Class G felony charge of 2nd degree Reckless Endangering Safety. He faces a 6- to 9-month revocation of his license on the OWI-1st charge, 30 days in jail on the Possession of Drug Paraphernalia charge, and up to 10 years in prison on the felony charge.

This is the second wrong-way drunk driver arrested by deputies in less than a week. Yesterday, Rachel Kuebbing was charged with a felony and faces up to 10 years in prison for driving the wrong-way on the freeway while drunk on March 29, 2012.
