Two Inmates Escape from Court-Run Day Reporting Center Sheriff's Detectives' Investigation Leads to One Back in Custody

Milwaukee, WI – The Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office Apprehension Unit is looking for an inmate who was granted court-run Day Reporting Center (DRC) release privileges and did not return last night.

Inmate Briean R. Vance, age 20, was convicted of burglary in February, but his 66-month sentence was stayed by Judge David Hansher, who ordered him to serve six-months at the county jail with Day Reporting privileges after serving two months.

The Sheriff's Office Apprehension Unit issued an escape warrant and has deputies working to find him. His criminal history shows multiple convictions for burglary, battery, criminal trespass and domestic abuse.

The second inmate who escaped, Tyarri A. Jones, age 19, is back in custody after the Apprehension Unit's investigation lead them to a residence where he was found hiding under a bed.

Anyone with information about the whereabouts of Briean Vance should call the Sheriff's Office at (414) 278-4788.
