Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office Remembers Alexis Patterson

Milwaukee, WI – Tomorrow marks the 10th anniversary of the disappearance of Alexis Patterson. The Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office command staff will gather outside Hi-Mount Boulevard Community School tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m. for a brief wreath-laying ceremony. Pastor John McVicker of Christ The King Baptist Church will be offering a prayer in thoughtful remembrance of Alexis.

"We have reached the sad, ten-year milestone since Alexis was last seen. Our community has not forgotten. The search must continue for new information to satisfy the questions surrounding the events of May 3, 2002," said Sheriff Clarke. "My prayers go out to those who love her."

The Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office is still offering a $10,000 reward for information that leads to her return. Anyone with any information regarding Alexis' case can call the Sheriff's Office Tip Line at (414) 278-4921.

DATE: Thursday, May 3, 2012

TIME: 9:00 a.m.

LOCATION: Hi-Mount Boulevard Community School
