Deputies Save Man's Life in Courtroom

Milwaukee, WI – Yesterday, at about 11:00 a.m., Milwaukee County sheriff's deputies observed an attorney in a courtroom, Branch 15, Room 623, who stopped during his remarks, experienced difficulty breathing, and began to fall. A deputy broke his fall, determined that he had stopped breathing, and began CPR. Other deputies cleared the courtroom and called for Milwaukee Fire Department rescue response. A deputy retrieved the AED device from the 6th floor of the courthouse, and deputies alternated cycles of CPR and AED shocks.

The 60-year-old man's pulse came back and stopped several times during this process, until emergency medical personnel arrived. He was transported to St. Mary's Hospital at about 11:30 a.m. and was reported to be in the intensive care unit.
