Security Employee Death at Airport

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County sheriff's deputies responded to a 911 call reporting a possible heart attack victim at an employee entrance gate at General Mitchell International Airport just before 5:00 a.m. today.

Deputies deployed an automated external defibrillator (AED) and administered CPR until the Milwaukee County Fire Department Rescue arrived to take over resuscitation efforts. The 60-year-old man was pronounced dead by a Froedtert Medical Center doctor at 5:36 a.m. Detectives are conducting a death investigation and notified the man's wife of his death.
