Drunk Driver Sideswipes Squad on Lincoln Memorial Drive Two Underage Passengers Ticketed for Drinking

Milwaukee, WI – A Milwaukee County sheriff's deputy was monitoring traffic on Lincoln Memorial Drive on Thursday when a vehicle sideswiped his unmarked squad shortly before 8:00 p.m. The deputy activated the squad's emergency lights, and the driver stopped his vehicle in traffic.

The driver, Josue M. Aldape, age 29, showed signs of intoxication and blew a .23 PBT, almost three times the legal limit. He said that he had four beers. Deputies found open intoxicants in the car. Both underage female passengers, aged 18 and 20, admitted drinking alcohol in the vehicle, and were cited for underage drinking.

Aldape was taken to the County Correctional Facility – Central (CCFC) on charges of OWI-2nd. His previous OWI offense occurred in February 2012. He faces up to six months in jail if convicted of this offense.
