Squad Struck on Freeway

Milwaukee, WI – A Milwaukee County deputy sheriff's squad was struck at about 11:45 a.m. today on Southbound I-894 north of Lincoln Avenue in the median distress lane. The deputy was in a Wisconsin DOT Motorist Assistance pickup truck that provides service to disabled motorists. The deputy suffered minor injuries.

Because an MCSO deputy was involved and injured, the West Allis Police Department was called to investigate the crash.

The initial investigation indicates that a semi tractor-trailer was attempting to move over when it clipped a Toyota Camry in the next lane, pushing that car into the deputy's squad. The driver of the Toyota complained of head and shoulder pain and was also conveyed for medical treatment.

The semi driver was issued a citation for Deviation From Designated Lane.
