Inmate Back in Custody

Milwaukee, WI – Inmate Ronald White, age 29, who escaped from custody last night, is now back at the County Correctional Facility-South. White turned himself in at about 2:45 p.m. today, several hours after the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office issued a release about his escape and asked the public for information. He was on court-ordered Huber release and did not return to the jail last night after he allegedly battered his girlfriend.
