Sheriff's Office Conducts EOD K-9 Sweep at Menomonee Falls North Junior High School

Milwaukee, WI –Yesterday, the Menomonee Falls Police Department requested an Explosive Ordnance Detection (EOD) K-9 sweep at Menomonee Falls North Junior High School after a bomb threat was found. Sheriff's deputies and their K-9s responded to conduct a complete sweep prior to the start of classes early this morning, with negative results.

This is the second sweep at a school this week. On Tuesday, the sheriff's office responded to a bomb threat at Wauwatosa West High School.
