Sheriff's Bomb Squad Responds to Suspicious Device in Waukesha

Milwaukee, WI – Yesterday, at about 7:30 p.m., the Waukesha Police Department requested the Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad response on a suspicious device left on the Bryant Street Bridge, near N. Barstow Street. The public was kept away from the scene while bomb technicians conducted their investigation.

The package was wrapped in duct tape with tubing protruding from the device. Explosive ordnance detection techniques were used and the technicians found the package to be safe at about 10:30 p.m.

Numerous law enforcement resources were expended to safely dispose of what appeared to be an explosive device.

The package was turned over to Waukesha PD pending an investigation.
