Deputies Arrest DUI-3rd Involved in Hit and Run Man Fled Scene and Found Hiding Under Parked Car

Milwaukee, WI – A car crashed into an active construction zone in a barreled-off area at about 1:30 a.m. today on I-43 southbound at Lapham Boulevard, driving up onto the cargo bed of a truck and narrowly missing a construction worker.

The driver of the vehicle, Floyd Matlock, age 27, of Milwaukee, fled on foot. Deputies established a search perimeter and found Matlock hiding under a parked vehicle in the 1500 block of W. Mitchell Street. He registered a .16 on a PBT and was arrested for DUI-3rd. His prior convictions were in February 2011 and January 2012.

The construction crew indicated that Matlock did not slow down as he approached and made contact with the construction vehicle. He also faces charges of 2nd Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety, and Hit and Run. If convicted on all charges, he could receive up to 11 years and 6 months in prison.

State Traffic Operations Center does not have video footage of this incident. A Felony Violation of Probation hold has been placed on Matlock because he is currently on probation for Felony Possession of THC.
