Harvard Study Debunks More Gun Control Link To Reducing Violence Myth

Sheriff Clarke wants to hear from gun control-supporting Milwaukee area elected officials on the study. Expects to hear crickets!

Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff David Clarke is asking Ernie Franzen of the Sentinel Journal editorial board and other local media to confront Tom Barrett, Ed Flynn, and Chris Abele on their false assertion (lie is more appropriate) that gun control will reduce violence in America or Milwaukee and that guns are the problem. A Harvard University study concludes otherwise. That's right, a Harvard study. That is not a typo. They can't blame this on some right-wing think tank.

If the study by this liberal university had concluded the reverse, Sentinel Journal, Barrett, Flynn and Abele would have already issued some statement touting the findings. Since it concluded what Sheriff Clarke has been saying, that the person behind the gun is to blame for the violence, and not the gun, all we hear is crickets from this cabal.
