Deputy Seizes $27K in Cash from Vehicle at DUI Traffic Stop

Milwaukee, WI – On Sunday, October 27, at 2:00 a.m., a deputy stopped a vehicle that had been deviating lanes on I-43 northbound from Chase Avenue to Highland Avenue. The driver, Terrance Pearson, age 34, of Milwaukee, was arrested for DUI-1st offense after performing poorly on standardized field sobriety tests.

The deputy could smell a strong odor of both alcohol and marijuana on Pearson's breath, and found more than $27,000 in cash in the glove box during an inventory search of the vehicle. A canine search was conducted by a West Allis police officer, and no narcotics were found in the vehicle, though the canine alerted on the driver's side door and the glove box.

Pearson was ticketed for DUI-1st offense and for Lane Deviation. Sheriff's detectives are conducting an investigation.
