Sheriff to Attend 65th Annual Exchange Club of Milwaukee Crime Prevention Awards Luncheon

Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr. will attend the Exchange Club of Milwaukee's 65th Annual Crime Prevention Awards Luncheon at the Wisconsin Club this afternoon. The event honors those who have made special contributions to preventing crime in our community.

Sheriff Clarke nominated Bill Bierman to receive a citizen award. Bierman had been fired in the fall by the Milwaukee County Transit System for coming to the aid of woman who was being attacked on a city street. Sheriff Clarke and Alderman Donovan publicly called for Bierman to be reinstated. Bierman subsequently met with transit officials and is back on the job.

The awards program follows the noon luncheon in the Grand Ballroom of the Wisconsin Club.
