Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff's deputies responded to a 911 call at 8:00 p.m. last night, reporting a possible drunken driver who was all over the road and nearly crashed into construction barrels northbound on I-43. Deputies stopped the vehicle just after it exited at W. Locust and N. 6th streets in Milwaukee.

Martin D. Snyder, age 59, of Milwaukee, has an alcohol restriction on his driving status of "no operation with alcohol concentration above .02," due to his five prior DUI convictions: February 1991, November 1991, April 1994, December 2001, and September 2005.

Snyder said he was drinking Smirnoff Ice at his home and his PBT was .039. The DUI-6th is a Class H felony, and if convicted, he faces up to six years in prison.
