Wrong-Way Driver on Freeway Ramp

Milwaukee, WI – Yesterday, at about 11:40 p.m., MCSO dispatch received a 911 call reporting a wrong way driver traveling northbound on the southbound I-43 off ramp to W. Lapham Boulevard and W. Becher Street. An MPD officer stopped the vehicle on the off ramp near Greenfield Avenue.

Deputies arrested the driver, Selvin Izaquirre, age 25, of Kenosha, for Recklessly Endangering Safety (RES) when he admitted he had accidentally exited the freeway and tried to get back on the freeway by going the wrong way on the ramp. Izaquirre said he went the wrong way because he did not know where else he could get back on the freeway.

Izaquirre was also issued citations for Operating While Suspended, Driving the Wrong Way on a Divided Highway and Operating Without Insurance. The felony RES charge carries a maximum penalty of ten years in prison.
