Wrong-Way Drunken Driver Sentenced

Milwaukee, WI – Alicia M. Sulok, age 34, of Hales Corners, was sentenced today on charges of 2nd Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety (RES), stemming from a wrong-way drunken driving incident in December. Judge William Brash stayed a four-year prison sentence and imposed three years' probation, along with 12 months at the House of Correction with Huber privileges for work and counseling.

On December 14, at 2:20 a.m., a sheriff's deputy narrowly missed being struck head-on by Sulok, who was traveling southbound in the northbound lanes of I-43 near Chase Avenue. She tested a .20 on a PBT, and was cited for DUI-1st offense and RES. The maximum penalty for RES is ten years in prison. DOT video showed her vehicle entering the freeway from Michigan Street. Sulok drove the wrong way for approximately six miles.
