Sheriff Clarke to Honor Deputies, Correctional Officers and Civilians

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr. will honor Milwaukee County Sheriff's deputies, a correctional officer and civilians for heroic acts and community service, at an awards ceremony tomorrow.

Amanda Collins, an advocate for a woman's right to self-defense, will be the keynote speaker. Ms. Collins has testified before the Nevada State Legislature in support of concealed carry on college campuses.

Among the stories attendees will hear include the following: that of Airport Division deputies who performed CPR on a woman who was pulseless and not breathing in the baggage claim area, and saved her life. An off-duty captain who was instrumental in a water rescue. The bravery of two off-duty deputies, one who attempted to save a man trapped in a burning car after a crash, and another who came to the aid of a Brown Deer police officer who was struggling on the ground with a suspected burglar.

This year MCSO will also recognize detectives for solving a $20,000 theft at the airport, a fiscal employee for noticing and reporting theft from county fees, and a Corporation Counsel clerk who discovered notes on an inmate's complaint that led to a felony murder charge.

Several civilians will be recognized with community service, crime prevention and medal of valor awards.

Media is invited to attend. Information on individual award winners will be available at the event.
