Sheriff Clarke Receives Key to City of New Haven, IN

Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr. was honored to receive the first key to the city of New Haven, IN last night from Mayor Terry McDonald. Sheriff Clarke attended the American Police Canine Association national conference banquet to deliver the keynote address for the event.

New Haven, Indiana was incorporated as a town in 1865, and as a city in 1963.

The American Police Canine Association (APCA) is a nonprofit organization that supports the continued education and training of working service dog teams in the U.S. and Canada. During the conference, law enforcement officers and their canines (100 teams) attend demonstrations and tactical training for problem solving, legal updates and certification, obedience, tracking, narcotics, vehicle search, package search, aggression control, article search, area search, and water and helicopter deployments.
