Sheriff Clarke to Honor Deputies, Correctional Officers and Civilians

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr. will honor Milwaukee County Sheriff's deputies, correctional officers, civilian staff and community members for heroic acts and community service, at an awards ceremony tomorrow.

Nina Salarno, Executive Director for Californians United for Public Safety, and Executive Board Member of Crime Victims United, will be the keynote speaker. Salarno, a former prosecutor, has spent her career advocating for victims' rights in the criminal justice system.

Among the stories attendees will hear include the following: a number of instances where deputies, correctional officers and citizens performed life-saving CPR – among them on a man who had a heart attack at the airport, an attorney at the jail, a man at a county park softball diamond, and a restaurant waitress.

Also receiving recognition are an off-duty deputy who spotted, followed and arrested an impaired driver who was driving the wrong way on city streets, another who arrested armed robbery suspects, and deputies who talked a suicidal man out of jumping from the Hoan Bridge.

Several citizens will be receiving Medals of Valor, one posthumously, for their selfless disregard for their well-being in their attempts to save others.

Media is invited to attend. Information on individual award winners will be available at the event.

DATE: Tuesday, September 29, 2015
