Woman Jumps from Hoan Bridge

Milwaukee, WI – On Saturday, October 11, at about 10:35 a.m., deputies and police responded to a call about a person who jumped from the Hoan Bridge. The 21-year-old woman landed in the river and survived the fall. Several witnesses in boats nearby and an MPD Harbor Patrol boat officer assisted in pulling her from the water.

She was breathing and regained consciousness when pulled from the water and was treated at the scene by Milwaukee Fire Department rescue personnel and transported to Froedtert Hospital. The injuries she sustained are life-threatening.

The MCSO detectives are investigating.
