Sheriff Clarke Thanks County Board for Supporting Public Safety for the People of Milwaukee County Through the Budget

Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr. thanked the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors for their action today in overriding County Executive Abele's budget veto on funding for the Sheriff's Office.

“The County Board did what they could to make a dent in the almost $10 million structural deficit that Abele built into his budget. The $4 million they restored will help close some of that deficit. The supervisors saw through the politics being played with public safety by County Executive Abele.

This was not about increasing the budget, it was about repairing the nearly $10 million deficit. It still leaves work to do. The sheriff will continue to work with members of the County Board to enhance public safety in Milwaukee County.”
