Deputy Arrests Drunken Driver Who Had Two-Year-Old Child in Car

Milwaukee, WI – This morning, shortly before 8:30 a.m., a courthouse complex employee notified a sheriff's deputy at a security screening station of a possible drunken driver parking a car near 8th and State streets. The deputy observed the driver attempting to parallel park, that she appeared to be impaired, striking the vehicles in front and behind her, and stopped the vehicle.

Nicole S. Kinder, age 25, of Milwaukee, tested a .19 on an intoximeter test, and was arrested for DUI-1st with minor child in vehicle. A two-year-old child was in the car. She refused to say where she had been drinking, and said she had dropped someone off at the courthouse for their drunken driving court appearance. The child was taken to the substation to wait for Child Protective Services to arrange for someone to her up this afternoon.

Kinder faces up to 6 months in jail for having a minor child in the car while driving impaired.
