Sheriff Clarke to Ring Bells for Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign at BayShore Town Center

Milwaukee, WI – Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr. will join the Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign tomorrow, Saturday, December 13, at BayShore Town Center. Deputies, correctional officers and MCSO staff will be ringing bells at that location from 9 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. The Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office has partnered with the Salvation Army for the past 11 years on the Red Kettle Campaign.

The Salvation Army actively works at "Doing the Most Good" for people in need, and funds are used to sustain its Toy Shop, Christmas Family Feast, emergency shelter, food pantries, meals to the homeless and care to veterans.

DATE: Saturday, December 13, 2014

TIME: Media availability with Sheriff Clarke - 11:00 AM – noon

LOCATION: BayShore Town Center
5800 N. Bayshore Drive, Glendale
Main entrance, across from Colectivo Coffee
