Status of Individuals Charged in Terrill Thomas Matter

Milwaukee, WI – On Monday, February 12, at the District Attorney's news conference, Acting Sheriff Richard Schmidt promised the public that he would render his disciplinary decisions by Friday, February 16. Today, Sheriff Schmidt issues the following statement regarding the employment status of the three individuals charged in the Terrill Thomas matter:

"Nancy Evans and Kashka Meadors resigned this week while the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office Internal Affairs Division completed its internal investigation. Had they not resigned, my recommendation to the Personnel Review Board (PRB) would have been termination based upon the results of our internal investigation. James Ramsey-Guy has not resigned and I am recommending that the PRB terminate him based upon our investigation."
