Sheriff's Office Investigates Fatal Pedestrian-Vehicle Incident

Milwaukee, WI – This morning at about 9:00 a.m., sheriff's deputies responded to a call for a pulseless non-breather at 1101 N. 87th Street in Wauwatosa at an entrance to the Medical College Complex grounds.

A 65-year-old man driving a Chevy Tahoe had stopped to get directions and while following another vehicle, struck the pedestrian in the intersection which was marked with four-way stop signs. A trauma nurse at the scene called for medical help and life-saving efforts were made until a trauma surgeon called time of death at 9:15 a.m.

The 32-year-old pedestrian, Rattanawadee Kotewong, was from Thailand, and resided in Wauwatosa while a student attending the Medical College of Wisconsin.

There is a non-disclosure on all video coverage. Any possible charges or citations are pending investigation and District Attorney's Office review.
