Sheriff Appealing Case to Wisconsin Supreme Court

Milwaukee, WI – Yesterday, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals issued a stay of their order for the Sheriff's Office to release unredacted federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement documents on immigration holds. The stay means that the unredacted documents will not be released while the sheriff's lawyers prepare and file briefs with the Wisconsin Supreme Court, at which time further proceedings will be decided.

Statement from Sheriff Clarke:

"Not so fast. This legal issue is a long way from being over. It will now potentially be considered by the state's highest court, and not by the illegal alien advocacy group Voces de la Frontera, which has no respect for our nation's immigration law and sovereignty."

No other statements will be issued by the Sheriff's Office while this is a pending legal matter.
