Deputies on High Alert at Sherman Park After Neighborhood Disturbance

Milwaukee, WI – Tonight, at about 8:00 p.m., multiple MPD squads responded to a group of subjects who were disturbing the neighborhood one block north of Sherman Park at 44th and Auer.

MPD advised MCSO deputies that the law abiding citizens living in the area were complaining about a group of rowdy people doing drugs and disturbing their neighborhood at the intersection of 44th and Auer, and that the crowd could move towards Sherman Park,

The perimeter of Sherman Park was secured by TEU deputies. The park has been closing four hours early, at 6:00 p.m., since the rioting several weeks ago, preventing any gathering of those seeking to ruin the quality of life in the Sherman Park neighborhood and protecting the Boys and Girls Club property.

The crowd was contained by MPD one block north of Sherman Park and it was reported that MPD made several arrests.
