Baby Injured in I-43 Shooting During Road Rage Incident

Milwaukee, WI – On Sunday, September 11, Glendale Police Department notified the Sheriff's Office at 4:52 p.m. that a 911 caller said they had been shot at on I-43 northbound near Capitol Drive. A subject in the suspect's vehicle fired at the victim's vehicle in an apparent road rage incident.

The shot went through a rear door and an infant safety seat, grazing a two-month-old baby. The baby was treated at Children's Hospital of Wisconsin and is in stable condition.

MCSO detectives are attempting to identify the suspect's vehicle. No other information will be released at this time.
